5 4. On the morning of November 2, 2004 I went to the same polling place where 6 I had voted without any problems in 2000. When I arrived there my name was not in the 7 poll book register. The election worker called Snohomish County to see why my name was 8 not in the poll book. The worker then informed me that I was not listed in the poll book as a 9 registered voter and they would not let me vote. I did not fill out a provisional ballot at this 10 time.

17 5. I went to the polling place again during the evening of November 2, 2004 to 18 make sure that I could vote by provisional ballot. I was again told that I was not on the list 19 of registered voters. I wanted to vote by provisional ballot, but the elections worker 20 informed me that my vote would not count because I was not listed as a registered voter. I 21 asked for a provisional ballot anyway. I filled out and sealed the provisional ballot as 22 instructed by the polling place election workers and gave the envelope back to them.

29 6. I was a registered voter in 2000 and I did not cancel or change my
